Society of Construction Law (Singapore)

SCL(S) is part of an international network of Societies of Construction Law which currently includes Africa, Australia, Chile, France, Gulf, Hong Kong, Israel, Malaysia, Mauritius, New Zealand, North America, Peru, South Korea, Turkey and United Kingdom.

Formed in 2002, with the objective of promoting:

" the education, study and research (and publication of the useful results of such research) in the field of construction law and related subjects both in Singapore and overseas for the benefit of the public and the construction industry."

(Article 3.1 of the SCL(S) Constitution)

SCL(S) plays an important role in presenting construction industry legal and technical views through professional development programmes, training courses, regular newsletter updates and networking events for its members and the construction industry at large.

Made up of a multi-disciplinary membership of about 350 members from across all sectors of the construction industry including architects, construction consultants and experts, engineers, quantity surveyors, inhouse counsel and lawyers, SCL(S) is run by a Council of volunteers supported by a professional Secretariat.

SCL(S) also constantly engages and works together with the international SCL network and partnership and several local construction industry professional bodies on various joint events and programmes for the benefit of their respective members. Our partners include:

- Asia Pacific Institute of Experts (APIEx)
- Association of Women in Construction (Singapore) (AWiCs)
- Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Singapore) Ltd (CIArb)
